TAFT IN PANAMA;

DINED AND FETED.

Party Inspecting Work of Canal And Will Make No Radical Change.

(By United Press.)

PANAMA, Jan. 30.—William H. Taft, Colonel Goethals and a party of engineers left Cuba this morning on a special train for the Pacific side locks. They are scheduled to return this afternoon, when Mr. Taft will be the guest of honor at a reception tonight by President Obeldia. There is a growing confidence among officials that no radical change in construction will be recommended.

Would like to have at once an upright piano for two months. Address "Tourist" 216 S. Palmetto St.

A Kind Hearted Waiter.

A surprising experience was that of a lady who received a bit of advice on table etiquette. She is sufficiently free from vanity to tell the story herself. She says:

I know that I am not a person of impressive appearance. I am inclined to be short and stout and to dress plainly. Still, I had hoped that I had an air of acquaintance with polite society. But now I shall be more modest than ever in my idea of the impression I make upon strangers.

At my first meal at the hotel where I passed last summer I was pleased with the face of my waiter. It was radiant with kindness and good nature. I began my dinner with soup and fish. As the waiter set them in front of me he glanced at the persons of fashionable appearance who were my neighbors at table. His kind heart was suddenly struck with the fear that I might make an unfortunate impression on them. He bent down and whispered in my ear:

His Defense.

Cobbie—You certainly have a good cook. By the way, where do you get your servants? Stone—From our neighbors. When we hear of a good one among them we offer her more money to come with us. Cobbie—But, my dear fellow, is that honorable? Stone—Why not? Can you develop a sense of honor with a poor digestion?—Life.

Quite a Difference.

First Comedian—What's the difference between a beautiful young girl and a codfish? Second Comedian—Give it up. First Comedian—One has a chance to become a full bride and the other to become a full fried—Brooklyn Eagle.

E. O. PAINTER

IS IN TOWN.

E. O. Painter, Jacksonville's big dealer in fertilizers, was in the city yesterday, the guest of George H. Munroe. If groves like those of Mr. Munroe with their vast deposits of shell and marl can be "toniced" with "Simon Pure" there is a vast field of usefulness for Mr. Painter's product in the Florida groves less fortunate, especially the interior ones.

CHENEY LAID TO REST.

(By United Press.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 30.—In the midst of a blizzard the funeral of Consul Arthur S. Cheney and wife, who were killed in the Italian earthquake, was held from Trinity church this afternoon. Many friends, prominent Italian government officials and colleges fraternities were present. The flowers were profuse. The bodies were placed in a temporary vault in Evergreen cemetery.
